

Jonathan Greenberg

*General Counsel
& Secretary*

Jonathan Greenberg is General Counsel and Secretary for DURA Automotive Systems, LLC. In this role, he is responsible for DURA's global legal and compliance function – including negotiation of contracts and other commercial relationships, management of litigation and other risks, ensuring adherence to corporate governance requirements, compliance with global legal and regulatory regimes, and patent and other IP filings, along with related enforcement.

Jonathan previously served as General Counsel at three publicly traded companies in the defense, aviation and high technology sectors. Before that, he was General Counsel and Senior Corporate Counsel at two technology companies in the Washington, D.C. metro area. Jonathan began his legal career at a major Wall Street law firm, and practiced as an associate at the D.C. offices of Holland & Knight, a leading global law firm with over 1,500 attorneys, before being elected partner in 2000.

Jonathan earned his undergraduate and law school degrees from the University of Virginia. He is admitted to the bars of New York, Washington, D.C. and Texas, and has served on the boards of several charitable foundations and the General Counsel Forum (Austin/San Antonio chapter).
